Direct speech means quoting the actual words spoken by a person. The speech marks are used to enclose the speaker's words ("") for example:

When writing direct speech, you should take note of the following.

- a) A comma is used to separate actual words used by a speaker from the word or verb that reports e.g. said, asked, told me, requested, ordered, exclaimed.
- b) The actual words begin with a capital letter.
- c) The speaker's words begin with opening quotation marks and closes with closing quotation marks. ("...")
- d) The quotation marks only enclose the actual speech and not the reporting verb.
- e) A closing quotation mark is placed clearly away from the nearest punctuation mark, a comma, a full stop, a quotation mark, or an exclamation mark.
