God put Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. He told them to eat anything except the fruit from the tree in the middle of the garden of Aden.

But Satan/ The serpent (Lucipher)/ snake tempted Eve to the forbidden fruit. She gave it to her husband, Adam who also ate the fruit and the two had disobeyed God.

God restored his relationship (reconcile) with man when he sent his only son Jesus to die for man's sins i.e. God fulfilled his plan of salvation through the life, suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.
Man should always ask for forgiveness (repent) after sinning.

TOPIC III:

FAITH.

Importance of faith to us.

It enables us to:

- | | | | |
|------|-------------------|-------|------------------------|
| i. | Do great things | v. | Be courageous |
| ii. | Fulfill promises. | vi. | Be obedient. |
| iii. | Have hope | vii. | Be trustworthy |
| iv. | Be patient. | viii. | Believe without seeing |

SOME PEOPLE OF GREAT FAITH IN THE BIBLE.

Adam.

He was the first human being to be created. He was formed from the dust. He was the summit of creation.

Eve.

She was created from Adam's rib. She was created to help Adam. Her sons were Cain, Abel and Seth.

Enoch.

He was the son of Jared. He lived in close relationship with God. He was later taken to heaven alive when he was 365 years old.

Noah.

He was a righteous man who lived in a very sinful generation. God decided to destroy all the sinful people using floods. God told Noah to build the ark to save a few lives. Every kind of living animals and seeds were put in the ark in pairs, male and female.

The floods lasted for 150 days. Noah's Ark later landed on Mt. Ararat after the floods had disappeared.

Only 8 people survived the floods and they were all from Noah's family.

- | | | | |
|------|-------------|-------|----------------|
| i. | Noah | v. | Japheth |
| ii. | Noah's wife | vi. | Shem's wife |
| iii. | Shem | vii. | Ham's wife |
| iv. | Ham | viii. | Japheth's wife |

God made a covenant with Noah never to destroy his people using floods. He brought the Rainbow as the symbol of protection.

A covenant in an agreement between and his people.

Abraham.

He is referred to as the grandfather of all believers.

God tested Abraham's faith in him in three ways and he accepted to do every thing God had told him to do.

- i. He had accepted to sacrifice his only son Isaac God later told him to sacrifice a sheep.
- ii. He accepted to leave his land of Ur to go to the Promised Land (Canaan) when told by God.
- iii. He made a covenant of circumcision with God.

Abraham's wife was called Sarah.

She was barren for a long time so she gave her maid servant called Hagar to Abraham.

Hagar gave birth to Ishmael. Later Sarah became pregnant and gave birth to Isaac. Hagar was sent away when Sarah got a baby.

Isaac married Rebecca and two sons Esau and Jacob.

Jacob.

He was a crafty brother of Esau, both were sons of Isaac. He robbed his brother Esau of the first-born rights. Esau wanted to kill him but he fled to Mesopotamia where he married two daughters of uncle Laban called Leah and Rachael. His twelve sons became the tribes of Israel. He wrestled with an angel of God and he was named Israel.

Jacob founded the nation of Israel. He had 12 sons.

- | | | |
|-------|----------|-----------------|
| i. | Rueben | |
| ii. | Simeon | |
| iii. | Levi | Sons to Leah |
| iv. | Issachar | |
| v. | Zebulun | |
| vi. | Naphtali | |
| vii. | Dan | Sons to Bilhah |
| viii. | Judah | |
| ix. | Gad | |
| x. | Asher | Sons to Zilpah |
| xi. | Joseph | |
| xii. | Benjamin | Sons to Racheal |

Joseph.

Joseph was sold to Egypt as a slave by his brothers because his father loved him more than the rest (jealousy) of his brothers. After successfully interpreting the king's dream about famine, he put to be in charge of food collection and distribution.

He was made a governor of all Egypt (Gen 41:37-45). The pharaoh also gave Joseph a wife called Asenath daughter of Potipher, priest of on. He was also given the name Zaphenath Pureah.

When his brothers came to Egypt looking for food during famine, he told them to go and bring the rest of the family members to Egypt to survive the famine. That is how the Israelites came to Egypt where they were enslaved for 400 years.

Moses (Exodus 3-7)

Moses was born in Egypt. His parents were Amram (father) and Jochebed (mother). When Moses grew up, God called him to lead his people out of slavery from Egypt. God appeared to him in form of a burning bush. Although he had seen a bush on fire, he went closer to it. He removed his sandals and followed all the instructions God gave him as he spoke from a burning bush.

He accepted to leave Midian and go back to Egypt where he was wanted for killing a person. It was God who told him to go back because those who wanted to kill him had died. His faith made him believe in what God had told him.

He had the courage because of his faith to face the king of Egypt and order him to allow the Israelites go to the Promised Land.

He led 600,000 men excluding women and children to the Promised Land/Canaan. Again his faith made him do that.

Aaron.

He was a brother of Moses. Moses was a stammerer and he became his spokesman when they had gone to deliver the Israelites out of Egypt to the Promised Land.

Joshua.

He succeeded Moses. He finally led the Israelites across river Jordan into the Promised Land. He and Caleb were the only who reached the Promised Land from Egypt.

Gideon (Judges 6:1-40)

When the Israelites sinned against God, he led the people of Midian to rule the Israelites for seven years. The Israelites cried to God for help. God appointed Gideon to rescue the Israelites from the Midianites. An angel from God appeared to Gideon and ordered him to go and fight so that he would free his people.

At first he had feared but it was after God had made him witness of several miracles that Gideon believed.

God told Gideon to use 300 soldiers to fight the enemy. The enemy soldiers started attacking one another and later on, they were defeated. His faith made God to act in his favour.

Daniel (Daniel 6:1-28)

Daniel was a man who loved God very much. He was careful in the way he related with others. As a result the king of Babylon (Darius) appointed him one of the supervisors of his governors. Later, the king made him the administrator of the whole kingdom. All that happened because the king loved Daniel. Daniel had faith in God and was reliable.

The governors and the supervisors, however, never liked Daniel. This was because he was an upright man. The governors and the supervisors made an evil plan, which would cause the king to find Daniel in the wrong at least once.

They advised the king to sign an order, which said that no one would be permitted to request anything from God or from any man except king Darius. Whoever would disobey that order would be put in a den of lion.

However, Daniel refused to obey the king's order he knelt down beside open windows and prayed to God three times a day. As a result, Daniel was reported to the king. He was punished by throwing him in the lion's den. (A den is a place where dangerous creatures are kept.)

The following day the king came to the den. He called "Daniel, servant of the living God! Was the God you serve so royal able to save you from the lions?" When the king looked into the den, he saw Daniel with the lions. Daniel was unhurt.

When Daniel came from the pit unhurt, the king was overjoyed. He ordered the people who had accused Daniel to be put in the den instead. The lions ate up all of them at once.

It was Daniel's faith that saved him from the lions. It was again Daniel's faith that made him to disobey the order to worship the king.

Mary – the mother of Jesus.

An angel of God called Gabriel visited Mary shortly after accepting to marry Joseph. Do not be afraid, Mary; God has been gracious to you. You will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus.

Although Mary was still virgin, she accepted the role God had given her. "I am the Lord's servant, may it happen to me as you have said," Mary told the angel. Mary did not mind about what other people and Joseph said and gave birth to baby Jesus.

He prayed for them, treated them and dug graves for those who died of a disease.

HOPE

Hope is living with an expectation of something better yet to happen.

Importance of hope.

- i. Helps people to be patient in all hardships.
- ii. Helps us to get what we hope for.

Hope is found in the book of Psalms
(31:34, 33:20, 34:17-18, 42:5)

In the Old Testament.
Jeremiah (5, 6, 29: 11-14)

The coming of Jesus as a hope
He was the promised messiah.

How people prepared for the coming of Jesus.

- i. People were informed about the coming of Jesus by the prophets e.g. Isaiah, Zechariah, Micah and John the Baptist.
- ii. Forming the nation of the God's chosen people (Israel) in whom the messiah was to be born.
- iii. Listening and receiving messages from prophets regarding the promised messiah.
- iv. They repented their sins and got baptized by John the Baptist in river Jordan.

NB. Hope should not be put entirely on earthly things e.g. money, houses, good cars and education. Such things can never bring true happiness and hope.

Jesus was given many names i.e. Messiah, Saviour, Lord, Emmanuel etc because he gave people hope and set them free from oppression.
"A promise is a debt".

How God gives hope for internal life.

There is life after death. This is evidenced when Jesus died and resurrected.
