51. Read the passage and answer the questions in full sentences.

BIRUNGI AND THE BEAUTIFUL LADY

Yesterday evening as I was going back home from school, I met a beautiful lady, she was from Britain and this was her first time to visit Uganda. She was going to St. Agnes Girls' Boarding School but she didn't know its location. This lady spoke only English yet none of the people around knew it. It was therefore difficult to help her.

As soon as she saw me, she stopped me and said, "Could you please direct me to St. Agnes Girls' Boarding School?"

"Yes, madam, St. Agnes is my former school. It is about fifteen kilometres from here."

"How do I get there?" she asked.

Board a vehicle to Zenge trading Centre and get out at the last stage. From there move up to the junction. While at the junction, take the road on your left and follow it up to the big church. The school is just next to the church.

She noted all the directions in her note book as I directed her.

Finally she thanked me and said, "You are a clever girl. You have given me clear directions. Good luck in your studies."

MY LIFE AS A KID

When I was a kid,
I felt confident about myself,
Never bothered about what others thought of me,
I was colour blind.

When I was a kid,
I felt loved,
Mother bathed me freely,
She always took me to bed to sleep.

When I was a kid,
I felt happy all the time,
We played games with friends,
Jumping and dancing together.

When I was a kid,
I felt scared of darkness,
Imagining of the devil visiting me,
And taking away my dear life.
Dorcus Walusimbi.
